* The vehicle in the picture does not necessarily correspond to the offered model

The Audi A3 is a premium compact model that combines sporty performance, advanced digital technology, and everyday practicality in a refined and dynamic package. Designed for drivers who value both comfort and agility, the A3 delivers a confident driving experience through efficient petrol and diesel engines paired with a smooth S tronic transmission and available quattro all-wheel drive for enhanced stability and control. Inside, the cabin features a modern driver-focused layout with Audi’s digital cockpit, intuitive infotainment system, customizable lighting signatures, and high-quality materials that emphasize comfort and sophistication. Advanced driver-assistance systems and connected digital services further enhance convenience for both urban driving and long-distance travel. On the outside, the Audi A3 stands out with its redesigned Singleframe grille, sharper LED lighting, athletic proportions, and expressive body lines that reinforce its sporty and progressive character while maintaining the elegance expected from the Audi brand.
